

5. THE NEW Power-Lunch Spot

It's where you'll find moguls and politicians schmoozing and sealing deals over lunch. They're sweet spots where the regulars always get in. Private clubs aside, a succession of downtown restaurants have been the place to be midday. For many years, it was the Blue Marlin, but now they serve lunch only on Friday. Then it was Café Continental, but they stopped serving at noon altogether. Today, Capitol Chophouse and Ocean Grill battle for the title.
